

The National Network of Volunteer Resource Centres (NNVRC) invite you to a Professional Development Forum designed to build capacity in the VRC sector around impact, funding, communication and operating effectively in a changing environment. The Forum will be complemented by an Evaluation Masterclass to build knowledge and skills to frame and demonstrate impact.

DATE:

Monday 1st April, 9.30am – 5.30pm VRC Forum

Discussion and workshops will focus on what we need to do for greater impact, being grant ready, communication and leadership development and strengthening our business models

Tuesday 2nd April, 9.00am – 4.30pm Evaluation Masterclass

Ross Wyatt and Kevin Robbie from Think Impact

VENUE:

Multicultural Hub, 506 Elizabeth Street, Melbourne

COST:

VRC Forum only $100 Impact Evaluation Masterclass only $150

If you register for Day 1 & 2 $150

The NNVRC is a strong national network of nine Volunteer Resource Centres that work together to strengthen community resilience, by building the capacity and sustainability of small to medium volunteer involving organisations. Network membership is open to localised and independent, not-for-profit Volunteer Resource Centres that build community capacity through the provision and promotion of information, support, services and mentoring to individuals, organisations and communities about all aspects of volunteering.

For detailed program and to register:

Trybooking: www.trybooking.com/BAXHQ

If cost is a barrier please contact the organiser through the registration page